The Mew Municipal Act. We cherre by the New Westminster papers that the Municipal Council ef that city have taken the steps required by the new Act to bring the Municipal government under the operation of its provisions, The Mainland Guardian has, in a lengthy article, pronounced against the movement, and prognosticates all manner of evil as a consequence thereof to the ratepayers and holders of real estate, should the Council be saccessful in accomplishing their object. It strikes us very forcibly that the fears entertained by our contemporary at to the direful results likely to follow an enlargement of RAISINS-Muscatri, Eleme and Suftanas, the people's powers in reference to the INPERIALS—in 2 in, 5 ib and 2 ib Bottles management of their municipal affairs, are without founds ton. The Municipal Act wisely requires that every member of a Municipal Council shall be an owner of real estate within the corporate limits of the town or city of which porate limits of the town or city of which he is a representative, of a certain specified value; and hence the ratepayers have the best of guarantees, that of personal interest, that those who undertake to conduct municipal affairs will exercise their functions with a due regard to reconomy and with an eye single to the conomy and with all eye single to the general welfare of the corporation. We cok upon New Westminster as a standing monument of the advantage that a well-ordered municipal government is to any locality, however small it may be in respect of population. The amount of work that has been done and the improvements that have been effected within the corporate limits of that town, is really marvellous, when the very limited population of the place is taken into account. And nearly the whole of this has been done uncer the auspices of the Manicipal Council, involving a vast expenditure of money, and yet the ratepayers have tion. After an experience of ten years, so well estimed are the people of New Weatminster with municipal privileges that they now desire to extend the sphere of their usefulness by accepting the in creased powers which is offered to them under their provisions of the "Municipality Act, 1872." We commend the good sense di-played by the municipal authorities of the "royal city" is embracing the earliest opportunity afforded them of adopting the new Act, for we feel assured they will design many adventages as a municipality. derive many advantages as a municipality by the change. The following is the clause which authorizes an existing Municipal Council to become incorporated under the provisions of the "Municipality Act, 1872": "Upon receiving an application, under the aignature of the Mayor or President of any City heretofore incorporated or established, and under the corporate seal, stating that by a two-thirds majority vote of the Mayor and Council, or President and Council, they desire, on behalf of the inhabitants of mekCHANT.

MERCHANT.

Oversion Fruit, Flour, Butter, such City, the Lieutenant Governor in Council, by Letters Patent under the Salesroom St. Nicholas Building, Govern-Public Seal of the Province, shall order that this Act shall apply to such City so incorporated or established; until such order is made, this Act shall not apply to any such City. When this Act has been applied to any City heretofore incorporated or established, the O dinanceand Acts relating to such City, and then force, shall, except so far as altered by force and be construed as one with this Act." We learn that it is also the intention of the Municipal Council of Victoria shortly to make application to be incorporated under the new Act. The steps requisite to be taken in order to accomplish the desired object are very simple, and if we are correctly informed the Council are manimous in favor of the movement. One the whole, but little fault can be found with the present or part Municipal Councils in the way they have conducted the Municipal affairs of the city. The Act under which they have worked is about as defective as any such instrument can well be. Their powers are as limited as they could be made n order to give them any power at all, and the only wonder is that they have managed their affairs so well, all things considered. Under the new Act their owers will be very much cularged. They will be in a position to obtain a very much larger revenue, and therewith very much larger revenue, and therewith their ability to increase their sphere of their usefaluets will be in a corresponding degree augmented. Under the new Act the Council will be placed in possession of the revenues derived from hotel and saloon licenses, a source of income which should have been long ago handed over to the civic government for the use and benefit of the city. Why the hotel and saloon keepers of Victoria should be made to contribute $160 more per annum to the general government for the privilege of selling liquors by retail than is charged to country retailers, we never could understand. No such distinction can be justified, save on the ground that it is made as a municipal rate, and if such be ground apon which rate, and if such be ground apon which the higher tax is levied, then the diff-r ence between $40 and $200 belongs to the city and should be handed over to the city treasurer for the use and benefit carriages. Last evening they spent pleasantcarriages. Last evening they spent pleasantity at the residence of Hon. Marshall Blinn, and the night on board of the steamer. From here, on Wednesday, the North Pacific carried the party direct to Port Gamble, thence to Port Townsend and over to Victoria the same day. During the two following days they visited every port on the Sound, including Bellingham Bay, Holmes Harbor, Port Sussm, Seattle, Tacema, Steilaccom, and every other bay or infet from the boundary line to this city. At the different places called at, the party landed and examined the formation of the country, and, on the boat, paddled around the shures and inspected the barbor. Fveny pert was visited during daylight, and as thorough an examination made as was possible. The party was satisfied with their tour.
